Religious Services To-Day_The Christmas Personals and Briefs.

MANORESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, NO. 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK,

There seems to be more theft going on Manchester this winter than for a long time previous, mostly in the way of small articles of merchandise and of small articles of merchandise and chickvens, but recently a thief has been after bigger game and stole a pheaton, the property of Mr. R. C. Broaddus.

Last Thursday week Mr. Broaddus sent the vehicle to the blacksmith shop of Mr. J. E. Gill, on Seventh street, to be repaired. The work was done and the pheaton placed in a shed in the yard. The next day the pheaton had disappeared, but Mr. Gill did not worry his mind about it, thinking that Mr. Broaddus had sent and gotten it. Friday evening, however, Mr. Broaddus sent to the shop for it. A vigrous search was instituted, but it was gone, and nothing has been since heard from it.

Eddie Moody, who was tried Friday in the Hustings Court on the charge of atabbing W. A. Neal, was scoulited. The Court was busy yesterday with the consideration of chancery cases.

At a meeting of the lately organized camp of Confederate Veterans, held Friday night at the Gray's Armory, it was day night at the Gray's Armory, it was decided that the name bestowed upon it should be the "Joseph E. Johnston" Camp. The by-laws of Lee Camp were should be the "Joseph E. Johnston" Camp. The by-laws of Lee Camp were adopted, and it was decided to apply for the charter from the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterahs. Twenty new names were enrolled, and the Camp adjourned until Friday night next, when a hall will be selected in which to meet. Religious exercises will be held as follows in the various churches to-day:

Rev. W. W. Lear will occupy his pulpit both mortaing and naght. The subject in the morning will be "A Dam Seller's Decalogue." The night service will be preceded by an Epworth League prayer service beginning at 7 o'clock. On Tuesday from 4 to 8 P. M., there will be a committee at the church toreceive donations for the poor. Any gift of goods or money will be thankfully received. Services at West-End church to-day:

ceived.

Services at West-End church to-day:
Sunday school at 9:30 A. M.; Preaching at 11 A. M., and 7:45 P. M., by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Stiff. Epworth Leagues meeting at 3:30 and 6:45 P. M.

The Missionary Society of Clopton-Street church will meet this afternoon. A nice programme has been arranged. A good speaker and several singers will be among the features.

Rev. Benjamin Dennis will conduct scrvices at Meade-Memorial church.
Thera will be regular services at Stockton-Street Baptis; church at 11 A. M., and 7:30 P. M.
There will be regular services at Bainbridge-Street Baptis; church at 11 A. M., and 7:45 P. M. Mas. Harding, in charge of the choir, has prepared a special programme of Christmas music.

Rev. Mr. Clayton will preach to-day at Ciopton-Street church.

Rev. Mr. Chayton win please to Copton-Street church.
Revival services are still in progress at Gowardin-Avenue Christian church.
Rev. J. T. Spencer, the pastor, will preach to-day. There will be baptismal services

The Methodist churches of Manchester will hold two union services on Christmas day at 11 o'cock. Central and Fifth-Street churches will worship at Fifth-Street church and Rev. J. T. Mastin, of Trinity church, Richmond, will preach. West-End and Archiry will worship at West-End and Archiry will worship at West-End church and Rev. W. A. Laughen, of Achurch and Rev. W. A. Laughen, of Achurch and Rev. W. A. Laughen, of Achurch and Rev. Properties are held are cordially invited to worship with these churches. Appropriate music will be rendered at both churches on this occasion.

On Christmas morning a sunrise prayer meeting will be held at Central church, beginning at 5:55 o'clock.

There will be a sunrise prayer meeting at West-End church Christmas morning conducted by the Enworth League. It is suggested that Manchester should certainly have a man to inspect all plumbing work done in the city. It is particularly necessary to have one first now as the sewer connections have to be put in all of the houses within the next few months. If these sewer fixtures are not properly constructed it will be worse than if there were no sewers at all. Then Methodist churches of Manchester sgaln if the sewer connections in the various houses fail to operate satisfactority, the people will probably think it the fault of the construction of the general sewer system. This is a matter that concerns the health of the city, and the citizens would be glad if the Board of Health would look into the matter.

Judge B. A. Hancock was able to be out to-day after some day's sickness.

Mr. A. T. Strader and children, Misses Elma and Gracie, and Messrs Robert and Leighton have returned from the Atlanta Exposition.

Little Curtis, youngest son of Mr. H. E. Du Val, is very ill with pneumonia.

Little Curtis, youngest son of Mr. H.
E. Pu Val, is very ill with pneumonia.
At 3 o'clock P. M. to-day Rev. L.
R. Thornhill, by special request, will preach at the Twenty-second-Street (colored) Baptist church of Manchester.
Mrs. C. W. Eaten is sick at her residence in Swansboro.
Mr. T. P. Ellington is very ill at his

A Troop of Cavalry to be Organized in the County.

BLACKSTONE, VA. Dec. 21.—Special.—A matter in which Nottoway is greatly concerned is the good reads question. Our county supervisors are moving in the right direction at last. With a compotent engineer in charge of the work there is no doubt that a wonderful change will be made in another year.

As before stated, the present system is little short of ridiculous. The work is put in charge of some man too thriftless to run a farm and too ignorant to dig a ditch and the natural sequence follows in our hub deep oads. It is wonderful hew we have stood such foolishness so long.

long.

There is talk of a troop of cavalry being organized in the county. If it is formed, it will be commanded by one of Fitz Lee's hard riders. We expect to be well and fully represented at the reunion in Richmond next June, by both veterans and militia.

in Richmond next June, by both veterans and milita.

Both the Hoge Academy and Female Institute closed yesterday and most of the students have gone to their homes for the helidays.

Messes Jacquelin, Sallie and Fannie Eprs are home from the Valley Seminary at Waynesboro, for Christmas.

Mr. L. C. Hayes, who has been attending the University College of Medicine, left Friday for his home in North Carolina, to spend the holidays, secompanied by Person, of the same State.
